

WINDOWS OF THE FUTURE

To KENNY,

a real nice guy that coaches for my softball team. Its been real nice knowing you and watching you play football for WILSON.
I wish you the best of luck in everything you do 'cause you deserve it. Good luck after you graduate and I hope you become a success in whatever you decide to do. Keep in touch over the summer 2229585 and enjoy yourself. I hope we'll still continue to be friend even if you are graduating. Take care of yourself and I'll catch you later.

Love

Happy Birthday
Always
Have you
to you

Where have I got a little convinced away
there but potentially I'm back down to earth now what a minute... I'm never down to earth - how could I possibly be back? Oh were the thing is I'm have to stay - unfortunately you dear Kenny are as good as gone. But hoping we two will stay friends for as long as possible and therefore, well Ken I gotta cut this novel (one noveltie) short, so that I'll just say take care of yourself
because it's a jungle out there. Bye Adios - I hope this will be the last goodbye I ever say
to you.

Kenny

What don't I say.
but, you're one of a kind. You have a certain something? about your character.
It's really a shame that school is coming to an end, because I probably won't see you around as much as I used to. Maybe one day we'll get back to talking about all the fun we used to have. who knows maybe that day will be next week or next year (I hope not but who knows)
Oh well that's enough for now
Hope to be seeing you around in the near future. Have fun and keep in touch 225-9140 (you better call me up or also)
Love on you!

P.S. Thanks
a lot for EVERYTHING

So
Kenny,
Wouge! what can
I do about this
You and I have really had some c-a-z-y times together! It's gonna seem funny without you around anymore. I hope that you'll come back and visit me okay?
I wish you all the luck in the world and hope that you'll take me out ever so rich and famous

Well our years all gone!
Most did we do this year?
Do you really want to know? Well
I guess you'll figure it out yourself
Any way, good luck always, even though we may not see each other. Hope everything goes 'as you would say'. Cool, right? & cc you around and at next years football games
dave shen

Kenny (my wish) - Well, it's been great knowing you two years. I hope your senior year was everything you expected it to be. I hope ours (78) will be the best. I know we will be! Anyway, I wish you the best of luck in all you do and may success and happiness follow you everywhere. Thanks for putting up with our "crazy" team! Take care and keep in touch okay!

To Ken, alright, schools finally out, now you could go in the army or whatever you plan to do. Well, it's been such a fun six years since I know you that I don't know what to say but good luck, and I'll see you around.

To Kenny,
a nice guy that I met during the football season. Hope you in the summer and hope you have fun in the future. Good luck in what you do. Hope to see you at the game next year.

HOMECOMING...1976

... a very special moment in time

There was a very special tingle of excitement that filled the air on October 22, 1976. That night Alice Lucero was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1976. Her court consisted of five Princesses: Valerie Bernson, Bernadette Torres, Mich Hatashita, Colleen Quan, and Diane Martinez.

To My Dear Henry:

Don't think I'm grateful to the sophomores for signing I as close to their entry but they just couldn't find a nice spot to begin. I hope this is okay. Anyway I will not cry (yet?) because you're graduating but who knows when the time comes.
It has been a year full of

IT'S fond memories, experiences
ONLY and surprises? I
THE know that everyone has to graduate sooner or later and
BEGINNING :!

I have never met a more devoted basketball player. And the other players as you would not be one of the best group I've ever met and met you along with my class and I had that to the perfect degree. Not because I'm like you! - I really mean it this!!! During with these compliments I would like to thank you for a fantastic time at Red Pike. It was full of good memories. Thanks and excitement which I will never forget. pg 96

THE HOOFPRIINT WAY

THEY WANTED IT . . .
 THEY STRIVED FOR IT . . .
 THEY WORKED AT IT . . .
 THEY GOT IT . . .
 WHAT WAS IT?!!

VICTORY!

They said we were too small, that it just couldn't be done. But they came by the thousands to see this team that was loaded with talent, speed, thinking, and good coaching, take the city 3-A title away from Bell High School in 1975.

This year the talk was on whether or not the Mules could do it again. Early in the season, the Mules suffered a lot of losses due to injuries. Even though these losses occurred, the Mules bounced right back with more men off the bench who either did as well a job as the man he replaced, or an even better job. With probably the best coaching staff in the city, the new faces on the field accomplished more than a job well done. New records were broken, and the Mules gained a 26 in a row winning streak, that not only broke a city record, but led the Mules to a final victory against Bell High School as Woodrow Wilson High School remained the 3-A City Champions in 1976.

CHAMPIONS

ON THE MOVE

Action is the Key word to describe our mighty "Bee" team as they proved themselves tough and hard to beat. The Mini-Hoofsters started the season right with a league win over Marshall, 14-12. The team enjoyed other such moments during the remainder of the season. Credit must be given to Mr. Richard Lopez and Mr. Jack Garofono for their devotion and effort in coaching the team.

Our Wilson Mule Footsters struggled into a disappointing season. Through their will to play and compete in each game they harrowly missed coming out on top. Endurance and perseverance kept our mules kicking. Led by Coach Dick Lopez, our team next year will come out on top, with the thrill of victory Go Big Blues!

El Sereno was unusually quiet that night and the clear air with a slight chill pocketed itself over the city blanketing the activities in the homes on the hillside. The TV's with a spoke of the famous scientist at Cal Tech of Pasadena who felt that earthquake prediction was a possibility given the right conditions in the area of any large fault. There had been several slight tremors in the past few days, and the probability of an earthquake became imminent.

The next day, early in the morning, an unearthly mist and fog shrouded the buildings of Wilson deforming their familiar shapes. A slow stream of bundled students tracked their way on to the campus trying to beat the tardy bell for first period. There was a warning, but the sound of the earth being beaten by a thousand trains at full speed was not familiar nor was it cause for immediate alarm.

It was a sharp cracking sound and suddenly the parking lot snaked and buckled bouncing the cars in all directions. The wind was in the main building and library showered their panes to the asphalt. The students ran from the swaying structures yelling the loud shrieking tones. The tremor stopped but the buildings continued to spew out students running, hobbling and crying from injuries sustained in the crashing of ceilings and walls. Then it happened again. This time the tremor threw the teachers and students to the ground and the buildings swayed and ground their way to large mounds of clouded cement, glass, flying sparks and small fire.

I snapped back to reality. The suggestion of my student's proposal for a storyboard flashed in my mind a series of pictures of Wilson experiencing an earthquake. He repeated "Mr. Danyo can I do a storyboard about an earthquake hitting Wilson?" "Yes," I said slowly slumping into my chair.

OF THE MERRY-GO-ROUND

Well, I'm almost writing toward the end of the annual. Well I better start slowing down and begin to say "farewell, my dear" like Shakespeare.

Now I hope I didn't leave out most of the critical things I forgot to mention if all I'll remember.

With which will be in late to write on your annual. Oh well

With a brain like mine I'm bound to fail someday.

My 10th friend your memory I would like to say again you've been a fantastic person. Wonderful personality.

Please don't say Changell!

SNO-BALL

1976 - Sno-Ball

Woodrow Wilson High on December 18, 1976, in the multi-purpose room, the Sno-Ball was held; with a perfect theme 'Midnight Magic'. All who attended looked magically glamorous and seemed to enjoy the splendid sounds of Powerhouse. The chaporons faculty and many who attended were exuberated by the large amount who came to this special event.

During this night of magic, the Sno-Ball court was announced. Sophomores: Lynn Hatashita and Debbie Nunez Juniors Barbara Espinosa and Eva Valdivia Seniors Maria Brockman and Christina Aguilar. Sno-Ball queen of 1975 Yadira Ramirez honorly CROWNED 1976. QUEEN CHRISTINA AGUILAR CONGRATULATIONS!

MR. AND MISS WILSON

On the evening of March 11, 1977, Woodrow Wilson High held their first annual "Spring Dance". It started off with the fantastic sounds of "Clean Slate". Our spirited students not only attended this event to dance, but to acknowledge the 1977, "Mr. and Miss Wilson" and the court. Mr. and Miss Wilson are chosen because of their great contribution of time and dedication to Woodrow Wilson High. The two students picked were Jesse Verdin and Cheryl Hatashita. The court consisted of Jesse Verdin, Marianne Maisnik, Darrell Yamashiro, Colleen Quan, Mark Rios, Amey Lee, Linda Sonoda, Don Yamagishi, Valerie Bernson, Brian McKay, Cheryl Hatashita, and Steven Serrano.

SADIE HAWKINS

The straw on the floor and the sound from "PRISM" in the air, made it an unforgettable night. Especially for "Rick Galvin" who was crowned "Spring King" for 1977. There were shot-gun weddings, candy apples, rent-a-dance partner which all made a country atmosphere of fun and excitement on the 18th of February in the Multipurpose room.

FANFARE OF FASHION

The glimmering shines of satin and soft, spring pastels of silk revealed the "Fanfare of Fashion of 77". This year's Fashion Show Queen was Beverly Miranda. Princesses are from left to right: B. Hutto, L. Santiago, G. Munoz, P. Adauto, L. Uballez and D. Aleman. Also S. Munoz, L. Perado, S. Lopez, I. Flores and V. Orcasitas.

POWDER PUFF WHAT ACTION!

The Juniors and Seniors did it again— Powder Puff Day and what a day. The stands were packed and the teams were at their best. It was a Wilson extravaganza. The first play set the tone of the game. The line action was ferocious. Nadine and Cruz banged away like pros and the crowd loved the battle cheering with every body contact. The cheerleaders spurred the players on while the Miranda gang turned the tide with hard blocking and fancy running to account for one of the scores. Cynthia Lopez ran for the other touchdown and the game ended with the Seniors on top 12-to-0. The Juniors played a fine game and eventually they will encounter the upcoming Juniors with this year's loss in mind. The crowd left the game buzzing about the hard play.

ANNUAL STAFF

Another year of headaches . . . that's what's claimed every year when working on the yearbook. There are deadlines to be met which means work, work, work. Working consists of typewriters clicking, layouts spread on the tables, negatives being printed and heads thinking. The staff vigorously worked to meet the early deadline for this yearbook. Although this year has been difficult we did the best of our ability to complete the Hoofprints yearbook of 1977.

The staff of the yearbook is a group of people who are dedicated to their work. They are the ones who make the yearbook a reality. They are the ones who work hard to make sure that every page is perfect. They are the ones who make the yearbook a reflection of the school and its students.

Always

This year's Annual Staff was blessed by the competent and dedicated group consisting of the following hard workers Valerie Bernson, Editor-in-Chief, Don Yamagishi, Photo Editor, Celeste Quan, Copy Editor, and an outstanding array of assistants, Rebecca Maravilla, Andrea Wong, Penny Wong, Celeste Quan, Beverly Miranda, Tom Villegas, Ronald O'Nea Lourdes Bourges, Amey Lee, and Ken Isaao
